

Member Application Form

Evans School of Public Affairs Chapter of Pi Alpha Alpha

Pi Alpha Alpha is the National Honor Society for Public Affairs and Administration, a program of the National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Administration (NASPAA). NASPAA is a professional education association dedicated to the advancement of education, training, and research in public policy and administration and is the accrediting organization for public affairs programs.

National Eligibility: Membership is limited to persons who demonstrate academic achievement in public affairs and administration in NASPAA member schools and/or outstanding public service, and who fall within the following classes: student, alumni, faculty, and honorary. All members have national membership with a local chapter affiliation.

Local Chapter Eligibility: Evans School Chapter members must have a University of Washington cumulative GPA of 3.7 or higher and have completed at least half of their coursework towards a Master of Public Administration or Ph.D. in Public Policy and Management degree from the Evans School of Public Affairs. The Evans School will verify GPA for prospective PAA members.
