

Supplemental Health Insurance Providers for Fellows and Dependents

You must purchase insurance for all accompanying J-2 dependents, as they will not receive medical coverage from the U.S. Department of State. Additionally, you may opt to purchase supplemental insurance for yourself.

Below is a list of some insurance providers in the United States that are available to you and your dependents. Please note that this is not an endorsement for any of the below companies, merely options available. Also note that the companies may offer varying degrees of coverage. As J-2 dependents, they must meet the minimum requirements, detailed in the "Health Benefits Requirements for Dependents".
