CURRENT PROJECTS

“Financing Higher Education: An Agenda for the Nation.” (With Patrick M. Callan, David W. Breneman, and Joni Finney.) Book manuscript in progress. I was primarily responsible for the sample chapter one which has led to the book’s acceptance for publication in principle by a leading university press.

“Higher Education Funding: On the Way Up But for How Long?” In The NEA 2008 Almanac Higher Education. Washington, DC: National Education Association, 2008 (in press).

“The Public Interest and State Policies Affecting Academic Research in California.” Chapter for a comparatively-oriented book tentatively titled, “The Public Interest and the Academic Research Enterprise,” to be edited by David Dill (University of North Carolina) and Franz Van Vught (European Commission). Draft completed, October 2007.

“Public Policy and the Surge in Private Higher Education Around the Globe.” Special issue of Journal of Comparative Policy Analysis co-edited with Daniel Levy (SUNY-Albany). To be published in 2009. I plan to author a paper on the U.S. case for this issue.
